OAK RIDGE BOYS
Christmas Dinner Show at Gaylord Opryland

Vince Gill & Amy Grant
Christmas Show
At the Ryman

The Oak Ridge Boys, who have sold over 41 million units worldwide, are synonymous with "America, apple pie, baseball, pop, rock, gospel and country music." They have garnered five GRAMMY® Awards and nine GMA DOVE Awards as well as the Mainstream Artist of the Year Award at the ICM Awards. The group—Joe Bonsall, Duane Allen, William Lee Golden, and Richard Sterban—have earned prestigious membership in the Country Music Hall of Fame (2015 Inductees) and Grand Ole Opry. They have charted more than 30 Top 10 hits, including No. 1 chart-toppers "Elvira," "Bobbie Sue," "Thank God For Kids," "American Made," "Y'All Come Back Saloon," among dozens more. One of Music City's most treasured traditions will return in 2022 with Amy Grant and Vince Gill's beloved "Christmas at the Ryman".

In years past, the husband and wife duo have filled the show with Christmas favorites such as "Let It Snow," "Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas," "Tennessee Christmas," "O Holy Night" and "O Come All Ye Faithful." Traditionally, the show closes with one of the most emotional moments of the night with a rendition of "Til the Season Comes 'Round Again." Vince Gill has amassed an amazing 18 CMA Awards, 22 GRAMMY® Awards, is a member of the Grand Ole Opry, and was inducted into the Country Music Hall of Fame. Amy Grant boasts 6 GRAMMY® Awards, and 22 Gospel Awards. This incredible duo will warm our hearts with their beloved holiday tradition of performing at the Ryman.
