

UPDATED: Special Holiday Event:

Solstice “Reflections on Winter Light”

Mount Auburn, Watertown MA;
NEW DATE: Friday, December 19, 2025

Price per person: $75.00/member; $85.00 non-member

Walkability: moderate = Ability to walk through the cemetery, up a slight incline, at night for about 20 minutes. Note: Individuals who require special attention must bring someone with them.

As the days get shorter and the winter solstice approaches, this 30-year old winter tradition at Mount Auburn comes to life. This immersive event carefully blends art, nature, music and light. Stroll through illuminated gardens, explore glowing “sculptures” of haze and color, and experience projections that dance across the architecture of Bigelow Chapel. It offers a shared experience in beauty and quiet that resonates for those who appreciate the subtler rhythms of life. It connects you with artistry and landscape and provides a chance to enter the new season with intention and light.

Ticket includes:

- Parking at Mount Auburn
- Reserved, timed entrance to the Mount Auburn 2025 Solstice Event beginning at 5:30pm.
- Club 50 volunteers will be on-hand to accompany you.
- Warm hospitality room, exclusive for WSB Club 50 members and WSB employees
- Heavy appetizers, cocktails, coffee, tea, soft drinks
- WSB & Mount Auburn co-branded item, perfect for winter

The event is a self-guided walking route along natural pathways. Dress warmly and wear good walking shoes. The paths will be lit, and handheld lights will be available. Guides and escorts will also be stationed throughout the walk.
